

Suchomimus

Pronounced:	SOOK-o-MIME-us
AKA:	"Crocodile mimic"
Time period:	Creaceous (110—100 million years ago)
Size:	33 feet long, 10 feet tall, 5 tons
Locomotion:	Bipedal
Diet:	Carnivore, Piscivore (fish eater)
Location:	Africa
Taxonomy:	Saurischia, Theropoda, Spinosauridae, Suchomimus tenerensis
Named by:	Paul Sereno 1998

Fast Facts

Suchomimus had at least 100 teeth.

Roamed rivers and lagoons to catch fish with enlarged claws on hands for slashing prey.

Has an extension of vertebrae on back forming a sail, probable for intimidation.

DINOS

